

Community Service Award

Established in 1975, the recipients are selected to recognize citizens who have participated actively and continuously in Community Service activities. It is intended that such activity be diverse and that the recipients be selected without regard to age, gender, occupation, political or religious affiliation. The record of the Community participation of the nominee should be described. Such participation could include involvement with family, church, social work, civic groups, business, elderly, youth and other forms of volunteerism.
